Phong Nha: Nuoc Nut Cave Discovery Tour

Difficulty level: Easy • Age 12-70 years old
Price: US$81/pax

Welcome to Phong Nha–Ke Bang National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, where nature's magic, the historical imprints of the nation's two great resistance wars, and the resilience of its people are revealed through ancient wonders. The park covers more than 123,000 hectares of limestone mountains and forests, hiding over 450 caves, even though only 30% of the park has been explored. Many secrets await you in this mysterious land.

The highlights include:

☑ ✅ Immersive 9D historical simulation at Commander Cave Museum: Drive a legendary Zil-130 truck on the Truong Son Trail in a multi-sensory 9D (VR 360) experience inside the 7-level command bunker. Witness the strategic history of the war effort, covering logistics, communication, and combat command, all within the authentic setting of Commander Cave Museum.

☑ ✅ Explore the pristine Nuoc Nut Cave: Journey like a true explorer into this beautiful, lesser-known cave, part of the same system as the famous Son Doong. Discover its mysterious natural beauty, featuring a large dome, vibrant multi-colored stalactites, and long sandy beaches.

☑ ✅ Swim in emerald waters and discover the underground river: Enjoy a refreshing dip in the crystal-clear, emerald-green lake found inside Nuoc Nut Cave. Conclude your exploration by admiring the mesmerizing sight of the sparkling underground river that flows through the cave's interior.

Morning

Please arrive in Phong Nha before 07:00 AM on the tour day to ensure a timely departure. Oxalis offers free dorm rooms with 6 comfortable beds at Oxalis Home (Oxalis's office) for those who wan to rest a bit before the tour. (Please let us know in advance if you need this service).

From 7:00 to 7:30 a.m., the vehicle and tour guide will pick you up at your hotel in Phong Nha and transfer you to the Oxalis Adventure office. Here, you will receive a safety briefing, safety instructions, and an introduction to the tour itinerary.

To start off a day full of exciting activities, you will visit Commander Cave Museum, a place that bears the footsteps of young soldiers and the memories of youth left behind in the Truong Son mountains amid the smoke and fire of war. Once a natural limestone cave, it was transformed by army engineers into a solid military base with seven distinct functional levels, closely tied to key strategic decisions along the Truong Son supply line. Today, visitors can explore each level of the cave, witness wartime relics, and relive the battlefield atmosphere through an immersive VR360 (9D) virtual reality experience.

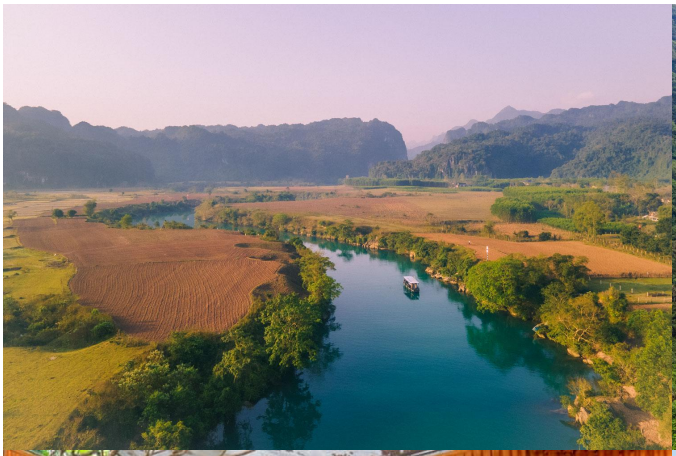

After this meaningful visit to Commander Cave Museum, the group continues by vehicle to the starting point of the trek to Nuoc Nut Cave. Following a short walk through dense forest and along easy trails, you will arrive at the cave entrance and have lunch here. Apart from a few shafts of natural light filtering through the ceiling, most of Nuoc Nut Cave remains shrouded in darkness.

Afternoon

Beginning the exploration of Nuoc Nut Cave, visitors will be equipped with helmets and headlamps to move safely inside. You'll be amazed by the varied shapes of the stalactites, the long stretches o sandy banks, and the crystal-clear pools. There's also the rare opportunity to swim in an underground river, an extraordinary experience few have ever tried.

The group then starts the journey back, leaving behind the stalactite formations and the darkness o the majestic cave to welcome sunlight streaming through the forest canopy. At the Ho Chi Minh Road (western branch), the Oxalis bus will be waiting with chilled drinks and medals to mark a meaningful and challenging adventure. The tour concludes around 5:00 p.m. The Oxalis guide and driver will take you back to your hotel in Phong Nha.
